Dingy Sailing 2026

The Swedish West Coast

Stenungsund is a growing town on the Swedish west coast just 40km north of Gothenburg in the region Bohuslän

Stretching along the west coast of Sweden from Gothenburg to the Norwegian border, Bohuslän is a seaside paradise with a long maritime tradition

Bohuslän is a place you will want to visit again and again. The gorgeous coastal region with its rocky isles offers some of the most delicious fresh shellfish in the world and gives you more than one reasons to come here.

Race Village

- The race village is planned to be placed at Tjörnbrö arena which is spread out at the foot of the iconic Tjörn Bridge.
- Everything from docking of the boats, accommodation and dinner are planned to be placed at the race village.
- For family and friends the arena is a springboard to all the adventures of the coastal strip. Explore the surrounding area or for those who want the pulse of the big city, it is only 35 minutes to Gothenburg.

Accommodation

Hotel & Race Village – Tjörnbrö Arena

Tjörnbrö Arena is not only the Race Village but also the main accommodation hub. Here you can stay, eat, and enjoy a variety of fun activities during your visit. The arena offers hotel apartments in different categories, suitable for individuals or teams. You'll find great facilities including an outdoor pool, trampoline park, gym, restaurant, and more – everything you need for an active and social championship week. Check the website www.tjornbroarena.se for current accommodation offers.

Unique Island Accommodation

You can also stay at our sister destination – the island of Lilla Brattön, located just a short boat ride away. Here you'll find cozy cottages in different sizes, from small cabins to larger, well-equipped houses with all the comforts you need to relax and enjoy your stay in a unique island setting.
