

EURILCA MASTER SERIES, SWEDEN & ILCA MASTER SWEDISH CHAMPIONSHIP

Ystads Segelsällskap

2026-08-28 - 2026-08-30

WELCOME TO YSTAD – THE HEART OF THE BALTIC SEA

Bring your boat and experience a unique sailing weekend where everything is ready for you.

We've prepared smooth launching ramps, well-arranged docks, and a perfect racecourse on open sea waters.

Every day brings something special in Ystad— friendly gatherings, good food, and the relaxed spirit that makes sailing fun.

PLENTY OF SPACE IN THE RACE HARBOR AND LAUNCHING AREAS

The harbor has lots of space for both dinghies and trailers as well for cars.

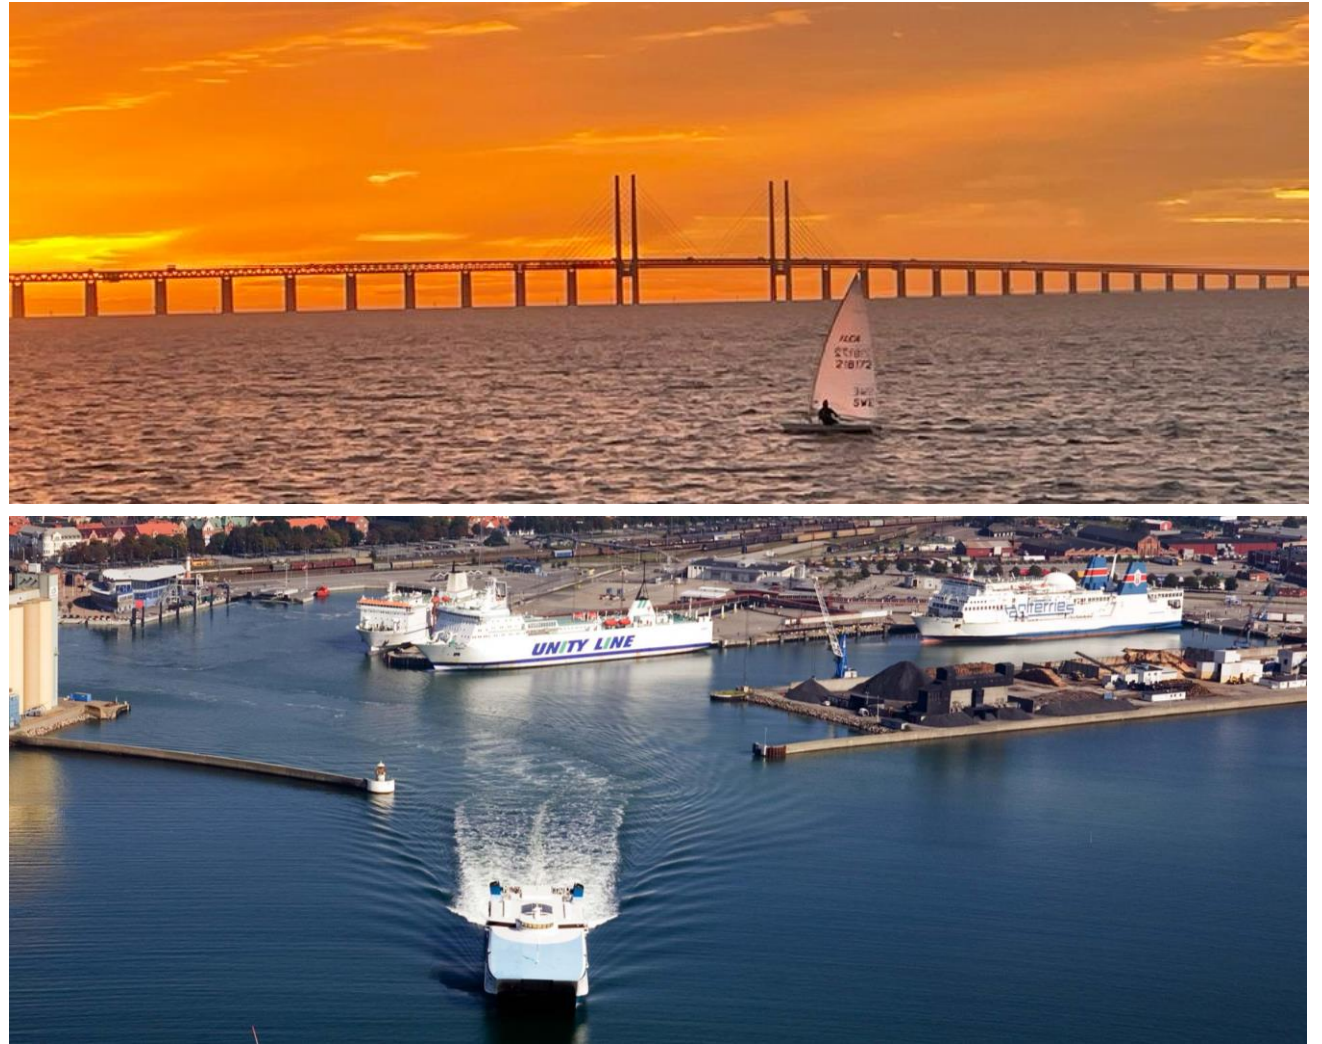

There is also a slipway for coach boats as well as a crane available if needed.

EASIER AND CHEAPER TRAVELLING AND STAYING IN YSTAD

Travelling to Ystad is easy with a highway, E65, from Malmö coming from the north or west or direct via ferries when coming from the continent via Poland.

At this time of the year the pressure from high season summer vacations has released and accommodations should be easier to find and cheaper as well.

THE HOSTING CLUB YSTADS SEGELSÄLLSKAP

The Club has a long history as a sailing club hosting championships and regattas on the Swedish south coast.

The first Swedish ILCA Championship was held in 1992 and lately has the club hosted ILCA Master Swedish Championship 2023, ILCA Senior Championship 2024 and JSM 2025, the National Youth Championship, with four racecourses and more than 350 dinghies including ILCA4 and ILCA 6.

The club has also weekly youth sailing activities and sailing schools during the sailing season.

YSS has hosted ORCi Offshore European Championship as well as a numerous of class boat regattas over the years.

THE CITY AND VENUE YSTAD

Ystad is a south Swedish summer city with an old well preserved city center with typical architecture for the area.

The city is a ferry town with connections to Denmark and Poland

East of the city is the summer area Sandskogen with nice long sandy beach and old summerhouses built in styles that could be called “carpentry joy”.

The city has among other attractions also preserved the famous “Lurblåsaren” that blows his horn in the central Maria Church tower in all quarter every hour during the night to protect the towns citizens.

Ystad is also known from the famous films about the crime writer Henning Mankells books about the police Wallander from the Ystad Policeforce. You can join guided tours to follow the stories in the footprints of Wallander during summertime.

MANKELLS
WALLANDER